RAFFLE

We have a great prize pool this time AND a very special MAIN PRIZE!

Here is a glimpse of his story, an except from his journal.

Jaxon

ANTI-VALENTINE SECRET DOLL
BY SPLATTERGIRL

Hey Journal,

Life's been a chill ride lately. Gigs, tunes, and the sweet hum of contentment. Playing with the crew, feeling the pulse of the crowd – it's been my kind of vibe. But you know what they say, change is the only constant, and I am feeling the itch for something fresh, something that'll shake up the musical equilibrium.

Don't get me wrong; I love the rhythm we've got going. The synergy with the crew, the steady flow of gigs – it's like a sonic comfort zone. But there's this nagging feeling, a whisper in the wind that's urging me to explore uncharted soundscapes.

Maybe it's time to dip my toes into uncharted waters, find a new muse that'll send my guitar on a wild, unexplored journey. I'm talking about chasing the melodies that haven't graced my fingertips yet, dancing with chords that are waiting to be discovered.

Inspiration is a sly fox, and I need a new scent to chase. The gigs are sweet, the melodies familiar, but there's a craving for that adrenaline rush that comes with trying something new. The question is, what's next? What's the genre, the vibe, the sonic adventure that'll set my soul on fire?

So, here I am, Journal, contemplating the next move. It's like standing at the edge of a musical cliff, ready to take the leap into the unknown. The canvas is blank, and I've got this urge to paint it with sonic hues that haven't touched my ears before.

Stay tuned for Jaxon's sonic serenity quest. The road to new inspiration is calling, and I've got my guitar strapped, ready to answer.

Chill on,

Jaxon

IMPORTANT REMINDER:

You have to be present to win the doll and be part of the live unboxing!
